

I want my right to privacy. Overturning "Do Not Call" is in direct violation of my right to privacy. When I am in my own home I want to control whom I speak with and when. I cannot tell you how many times my family interactions have been disrupted due to the selling of a product or service. It is uncalled for and I strongly urge you not to overturn this initiative in New Jersey.